

CLASS WILL

Gaylen Koons: I will my shiny bottle of peroxide to anyone who wants red hair!!!!!!

Janice Mashburn: I leave Nothin' To nobody.....So there.

Jeri Craig: I will my straight A in Mr. Cochrane's room to anyone who wants to get my kind of straight A in there.

Ida Johnson: I leave Cantor to Bernice Sarrls, who won't appreciate it.

Bill Paden: I hereby bequeath Mr. Cochrane's jokes to posterity,

Joanne Okamoto: I will my height to Peggy (Shorty) McClung.

Deanna Burroughs: I will my suprise test grades on the chapters in Mr. Cochrane's room to Lou Ann Smith.

David Gatewood: I leave my brains to Larry Coleman.

Louise Turner: I will* all my good grades in Algebra to Winnie Stillman and Steven Shepard.

Julia Walker: I will all the cute ninth grade girls who won't be passing to my brother.

Tom Palmerlee: I leave all Mr. Cochrane's homework to all the future ninth graders who are eager enough to take Social Studies.

Helen Chavez: I will my chair in Mr. Cochrane's room to Ricky Romero.

Judy Marsell: I leave all Mr. Cochrane's test grades which I made to anyone who wants them.

Larry Heeb: I will all my A's in Latin to my kid brother, Jeff.

Ruby Stone: I leave all my bad grades in Mr. Cochrane's class to anyone who wants them.

Judy Pearson: I will all the fun and work that I had in Mrs. Six's plays to Susie Burns.

Mary Hammig: I will all my ninth grade grades and my streak of peroxide hair (which was willed to me by Phyllis Wertzberger which was willed to her by Judy Gray.) to Toehl Harding.

Louis McCorkill: I leave all my bad grades to Linda Wright.

Flida Kimball: I will all my F's to my sister Ellen.

Raymond Reed: I leave my beautiful drawing on my desk in Algebra to John Bright.

Jim Riley: I leave my squeaky desk in Algebra to Mike Zwink.

Buddy Orr: I will my gym shoes to Jerry Todd.

Mary Speicher: I will my grades in Social Studies to wavy James.

Karen Stuart: I will all my passengers after school to someone with a big car !!!!!

Billy Whitebread: I will all my gym stuff to Tommy Burns.

Linda Pinet: I'm selfish, so i'm taking it all with me.

Thelma Southard: I will my record of being on time in Mrs. Zilliox's room to Pat Turner.

Joe Romero: I will my gym socks to Danny Garcia.

David Rood: I'd leave my worn out Algebra book to Katy Rood.

Linda Rake: I leave the fun I had studing to Carolyn Hodge.

Carol McMillin: I will my grades in Algebra to Sally Clark.

Janet McFarland: I will to Marilyn Allen (if she can stand the smell) my dirty gym socks.

Dick Long: I will all the squeaky chalk in W.H.C.'s room to any eight grader who wants it.

Doug Lockwood: I will all my red hair (was black for about two weeks) to Charles Breithaupt.

Ron Landon: I will my worn out Algebra book to anyone who wants it.

Sylvester Hagan: I will my good grades in Algebra to Leonard Clark.

Judy Demos: I will my ability to get into trouble to Carole Zimmerman.

Janice Deatherage: I will the ability to sleep until 8:15 on school days to Babrar Burroughs.

Harrell Conely: I leave my two year old gym shoes to Kenny Roper.

Phil Comstock: I will the third seat on the first row in band to Bob Cheek.

Rosemary Hamilton: I will my $\frac{1}{4}$ bottle Peroxide to Mike McWilliams.

Roger Scott: I will what's left of my gym clothes to whoever want's them.

Ted Kennedy: I will Miss Beach to anyone who takes Science.