

- Keith Jochim: I will some six inch shoes to Mr Zillox.
- Caroly Eacock: I will my chair in Orchestra to anyone who likes to watch mustashes beat out the time.
- Marty Evans: I will my happy times in Mr. Smith to any eight grader who gets him next year.
- Jim Freeman: I will my old used spirals to Paul Zillner.
- Jim Kleán; I will my Social Studies grade cards to Kenny Roper.
- Connie Smith: I will my intelligence and wit to Rose Vann.
- Larry Torneden; I leave all my teachers to my brother, Roger.
- Ruth Bramble: I leave to my brother Fred, (who needs it badly since he got a "crewcut"), exactly one inch of my hair.
- Karen Henry: I will all nt A's to Mary Ruth Payne.
- Bobby Kilburn: I will my bike to Rickie Romero.
- Deborah: Grinstead: I will my social Studies book with all the answers in it to Nancy Oyler.
- Liana Williams: I hereby will my everlasting ability to: 1. Take in school. 2. Chew gum. 3. Make friends. 4. Run in the halls, to my poor sister.
- Charles Morris: I will my candy bar rapers to Mrs. Riggs.
- Nancee Grinstead: I leave my messy locker to Patty Wilson.
- Elizabeth: I will my height to Jerry Morton.
- Elwin Carter: I will my Algebra papers to my sister, Carole.
- Bob Hopkins: I will my brother to any girl who wants him and also my ability to write the Constitution in Mr. Cochrane's class to my brother.
- Larry Dolifka: I will my ability to fail science to Doyle Williams.
- Joe Transue: I will Mike Frame to Nancy Allen.
- Kay McNichol; I will all my love letters to Doris Brine.
- Jerry Owens: I will my good for nothin' locker to Barbara Haller.
- Donna Collins: I will my athletic ability to Barbara Haller.
- Don Gordon: I will my old worn out Pencils to Jack Shipman.
- Gene Jackson: I will my track ability to Justin Rice.
- Gene Noble: I will my desk in Mr. Berger's room to Eddie Alexander.

Billy Payne: I will all my one-legged A's to Miss Black.

Janet Burnett: I will my gym suit to my brother, David and I hope he uses it well.

Jimmy Buerman: I will my ability to tear transmission out of cars to Gene Geffler.

Otis Vann: I will my ability in gym which isn't good to Mike Zwink.

Rex Moubry: I will my ability to be good in science to Jerry Morton.

Oakley Schweda: I will my ability to get into trouble to Eddie LaRue.

Kred Adamson: I will my track ability to Steve Edmonds.

David Roberts: I will a minster to Harold Godfrey.

Charles Saunders: I will my bad brakes on my bike to Kenny Rood.

Alfred Sundin: I will my ability to talk alot to Bob Morgan.

Nancie Morgan: I will my burnudas that my dog chewed to Dickie Collister.

Bill Hargrove: I will Mrs. Adame's poor sense of "HUMOR" to all people who will attempt to prove themselves amusind to her.

Judy Griffiths: I will my very weak, weak, tiny, frail, feeble, and very very smart brain to Mary Ruth Payne.

Genevieve Hook: I leave my lousy grade cards to Cantor who won't appreciate it.

Sandrs Smith: I will all my chapters from Mr. Cochrane's room to Nancy Oyler.

Suellen Philipp: I will all my fingernails I broke playing (?) my flute to Sharon Pettingill.

Carol Wartianen: I will my intelligent personality to Tommy Risk.

Bette DeWalt: I will my Latin book and all the luck she can dig up. (She'll need it!!) to Sondra Thomas.

Jeannie Shultz: I will my weeks of seventh hours in Mr. Smith's room to Nancy Oyler, although if she likes to chew gum she won't need any of my extra ones.

Virginia Kreye: I will my battered Latin Book to Kathy Rood.

Charles Duver: I will my great great football ability to anyone who needs it.

Carolyn Sheperd: I will all my Latin Tests and my Algebra Tests grades to my sister, Kerry.