

David Kruse: I will my Algebra book to Miss Engelson.

Mary Perry: I will all the lipstick that I have lost to Linda Philo.

Joyce Husted: I will my seat in Social Studies to Hudy Snavelly.

Eddie Smith: I will the gum under the tables in Miss Beach room to Judy Morris.

Mary B. Kirby: I will my band uniform to Marilyn Grantham.

Jim Freeman: Oh-h I want to will all my F's and don't think there's not a lot of them.

Eugene Wilson: I leave my clean locker to anyone who wants it.

Joe Hawkins: I will my mechanical ability to Tom Fisher.

Hazel Jones: I will my broken glasses to Sarah G. Harris.

Pat Niemoeller: I will all the boy friends that I didn't have to any lonely person.

Sharon McHenry: I will my little brother to anyone who wants him.

Marion Bell: I leave my muscles to Larry Coleman.

Robert Bruce: I will my ability on the rings to Stephen Shepard.

Leo Souders: I will my size 12½ shoes to Mike Zwink.

Shirley Higgins: I will my locker to Burt Holliday.

Jim Hoover: I will my Algebra book to Steve Edmonds.

Gary Colburn: I will all my old pencils and paper to my little brother, Buddy.

Karen McIntye: I leave all the homework and teachers to Patsy Walker.

Roy Todd: I leave to my brother, Jerry, my broken down locker.

Shirley Higgins: I will my locker to Burt Holliday.

Jim Hoover: I will my Algebra book to Steve Edmonds.

Gary Colburn: I will all my old pencils and paper to my little brother, Buddy.

Karen McIntye: I leave all the homework and teachers to Patsy Walker.

Judy Griffiths: I will my brain to Mary Ruth Payne.

Bill Elkins: I will my brains to Miss. Beach.

Linda Norris: I leave my cheerleading ability to Pat Wooden.

John Mull: I will my nocked ~~knees~~ to Marvin Pine who will put them to good use.

Linda Garrett: I will my seat in Mr. Zilliox to anyone who can fell it.

Linda Kay Norman: I will my good times in Mr. Cochrane's class to my brother, Butch, when He gets there.

From All Ninth Grades.

We, the 1955-1956 Freshman Class, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and Testament.

First: We leave this building and its contents to the future students of Lawrence Junior High School.

Second: We leave to the future ninth graders, all of our good grades in hopes that they will do just as well.

Third: We hereby leave these worldly possessions which were named above to be distributed among them:.